

Resources for educators seeking artists:

The Arts in Education Directory is for teachers and administrators who are interested in providing arts and cultural programming for their students. The directory which is available to schools, contains names, addresses and biographies of outstanding artists of various disciplines from a wide range of geographic areas, many of them local to the SCT BOCES area":

www.gstboces.org/iss/artsineducation

Performers and Programs "A Database resource of entertaining and educational programs – A statewide collaboration of the Public Library Systems in New York":

www.performersandprograms.com

"The Association of Teaching Artists (ATA) is a non-profit professional organization whose mission is to strengthen and serve Teaching Artists from all disciplines in New York State":

www.teachingartists.com